

Apprenticeships after Year 11...

Apprenticeships

Monday 29th January 2024

Why do you want an apprenticeship...

- Don't know
- Easy option
- I want money
- I don't know what career I want
- Practical Learner
- Proactive person
- I know what I want to do
- Prepared to work hard

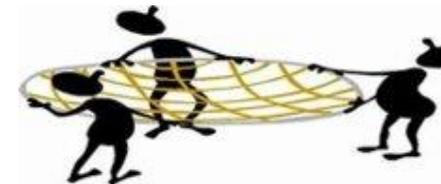

Importance of back-ups...

'Under previous legislation it was compulsory for young people to remain in education until the age of 16. However, as a result of legislation introduced in September 2013, the law now requires that young people continue in education, employment or training until the age of 18.'

Department for Education
(2016)

The exception...

- With York College you can apply for an apprenticeship with or without an employer.
- Just select the apprenticeship you are interested in (in the application section of the website) and apply without giving employer details. Some of you will have done this already.
- If York College can find you an employer, they will. If not, you just do a regular course!

What if I don't get an apprenticeship...

365

Apprenticeship Levels...

NAME	LEVEL	EQUIVALENT

3 – Contact the Providers

Aswell as asking employers and applying for vacancies. You can go directly to training providers who run apprenticeships. The main provider in York is York College, but there are others too!

The York, North Yorkshire and East Riding Apprenticeships Hub has information on providers of apprenticeships and which apprenticeships they deliver.

You can find contact details for training providers and get in touch/visit their websites.

Some will ask you to apply (like York College), some will have vacancies, some might ask you to register. They will all be different, but they will all have their own way of keeping you in the loop!

What the world of work expects...

When you are trying to find employers, applying and interviewing, remember the following tips...

- Have an up-to date CV (you made one last year)
- Dress appropriately for any meetings/interviews, and make sure you are on time.
- Be friendly and professional with potential employers, smile and make eye contact where possible.
- Introduce yourself and be confident about what you can offer an employer; make sure you have researched the role/business thoroughly.
- Listen carefully to the employer, and put your phone away!
- Don't ignore the job description!

If you have any questions about the above, the presentation in general, or you need help with applications and interviews, see Mr Daniel or Miss Barker in Aspirations. You can email us, call in at break/lunch or book in through your form tutor.
